1967-68 was our year . . . to stumble and stride through that experience of learning just what it's all about . . .
to fit the pieces together within the boundaries of sleepy Mondays and never-ending Fridays, of harried days and work-filled nights.
Sometimes you can't remember the flashes of insight, or don't want to remember the moments of confusion,
so you let your mind wander to other things . . .
maybe it was the special meaning that 2:45 P.M. bell had for you or the controversy the Wall caused . . .
maybe it was the "We're No. 1!!" cry or the students "In the Know" . . . or even the T.P.'d trees you looked out on so often.
No matter, it's all part of the experience.
When you come to think of it, the year was filled with so much . . .
with work . . . and play,
heartbreak . . . and love,
with numerous tangibles . . . and even more intangibles, that it makes you stop and wonder,
"What is it all about?"

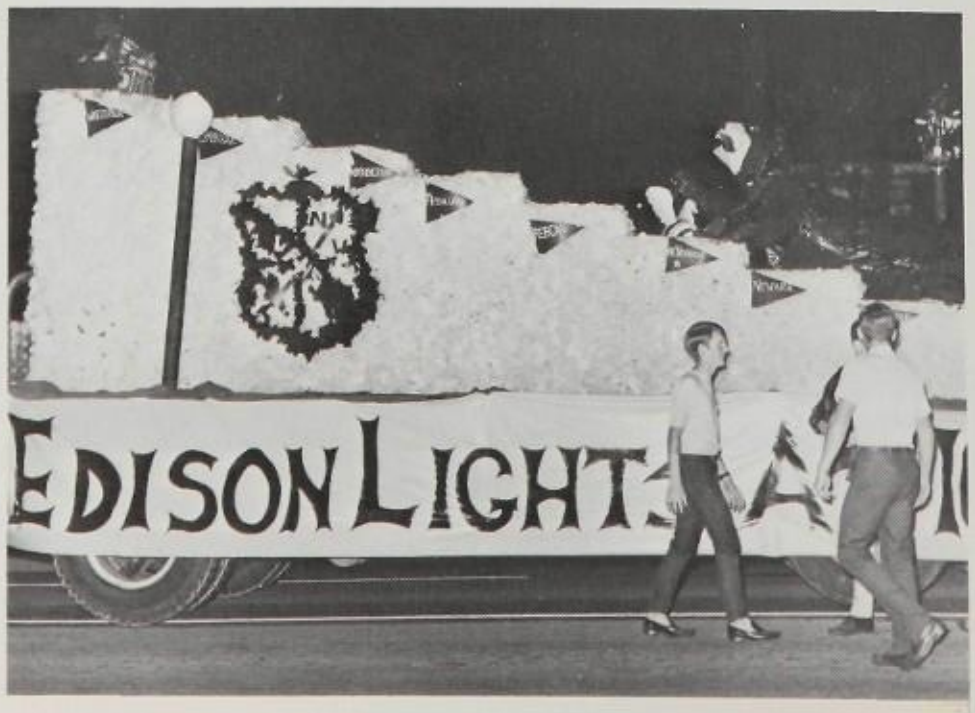
GEORGE, WE'LL SWAT 'EM!
MOUNT VERNON
BEEHIVE



EDISON LIGHT

Homecoming '67 calls to mind a combination of floats queens, teams and music. The Seniors led the parade and the winners' list with "By George, We'll Swat 'Em!" Close behind was the Junior float, "Edison Lights the Way," followed by the Sophomore float, "Crossing the Delaware."

Homecoming Queen Judy Brewer, with her Attendants Molly Caldwell, Molly Kelsey, Mindy Rowe, and Lynn Scarberry, reigned over our victorious Homecoming game against Mt. Vernon and the traditional Homecoming dance that followed.

Seniors gained insight into the mechanics of government this year through Youth-In-Government. The activities were organized and planned by Seniors Mary McKitrick and George Richards and American Government teachers Miss Todd and Mr. Miller. Black Party Chairman Jim Carpenter and Gold Party Chairman Craig Nohl presided over caucuses which nominated candidates for the offices of Mayor, Vice-Mayor, and Councilmen. Locke McKenzie won the office of Mayor and Randy Brown was elected to the office of Vice-Mayor.

During November, the elected officers and the appointed officials met with the members in the corresponding positions in the Upper Arlington Government. The students learned the problems that a working government faces and the solutions that are realistically possible.

December 6, the students were rewarded for their interest and effort. A luncheon at Scioto Country Club was held in their honor by the Upper Arlington Civic Association. The Honorable Judge William O'Neill spoke to the group on democracy and brought the Youth-In-Government activities to their conclusion.

The Christmas Formal, sponsored this year by CRI and ASK, was the high point of the school's holiday season. Frosted snowflakes and Christmas trees carried out the theme of "Christmas Inside and Out." Billy Graham and the Escalators brought a pleasant change in entertainment and set the pace for dancing with their lively beat. The climax of the evening was the crowning of the Queen of Queens, Senior Jan Smith, and Junior Queen, Martha Durant. Senior Attendants Mary Canfield and Sue Giovanello and Junior Attendants Diane Adair and Libby Pfefferle formed the Queen's court.

"A Circus" was the theme of the annual Golddiggers' Dance sponsored this year by Charm Club, and traditionally girl-ask-boy. The Cheerful Earful proved to be a feature attraction, but the main sideline event was the crowning of the Golddiggers' Kings. John Kingsboro was crowned Sophomore King, Willie Verhoff reigned as Junior King, and George Richards ruled as Senior King. Steve Ramey was chosen King of Kings.

Student Council President Tom Doerk calls the monthly meeting to order.

Tom Jones (Vice-President), Mrs. Klein (Advisor), Tom Doerk (President), Mrs. Fulton (Advisor), Jud McIntire (Treasurer), and Peggy O'Neill (Secretary) accept the responsibility of organizing the council's activities.

An active Student Council organized the Homecoming activities, furnished buses to away football games, elected the Students of the Month, and supplied the school store with candy and various school supplies. They also provided clocks for every room and pennants for the gymnasium. An Executive Cabinet was created to allow club presidents to meet and discuss common problems. A suggestion box was placed in the office to provide the student body an opportunity to voice their opinions.

Student Council strove for efficiency and a better understanding among students and faculty. By working directly with the administration, they were able to fulfill the majority of their proposals. Much of the year's success at UA resulted from the hard work of Student Council.

National Honor Society officers, Marti Johnson (Treasurer), Andy Snow (Vice-President), Ginger McKay (Secretary), Geoff Case (President), Miss Randall (Advisor), Dave Wilhoite (Leaders' Club Representative), and Mrs. Tanner (Advisor), were recognized for their outstanding scholastic achievements and character.

Honor societies formed in the high school are comprised of the highest quality of students. To be selected is considered quite an honor. Not only does one have to meet certain academic requirements, but also he must demonstrate the qualities of leadership and character.

The UA chapter of National Honor Society sponsored an open house and conducted its initiation ceremonies. The five members of Quill and Scroll sponsored bake sales to finance their initiation ceremony. French Honor Society sponsored several speakers, held bake sales, and supported an orphan in France. A pinata party, speakers from Latin America and Mexico, and planning for the state-wide convention occupied the chapter of Spanish Honor Society.

Viewing pictures of France through the opaque projector are French Honor Society officers, Ann Brown (Treasurer), Mrs. Beery (Advisor), Jan Runyan (Vice-President), Bruce Morgan (President), Carol Nack (Social Chairman), Mrs. Hale (Advisor), and Karen Brown (Secretary).

Quill and Scroll officers, Krissy Lindley (Secretary), Dan Warfield (Treasurer), Rick Drake (President), Cindy Martin (Leaders' Club Representative), Joanie Thomas (Vice-President), and Mrs. Richmond (Advisor), were recognized for their outstanding journalistic talents.

Spanish Honor Society members, Mr. Beery (Advisor), Sue Phillips (Secretary), Andy Snow (President), Beth McCartney (Treasurer), Ann Rennie (Corresponding Secretary), and Mrs. Duryee (Advisor), examine various Latin American objects.

Spanish Club officers, Mr. Sacco (Advisor), Sue Brown (Publicity Chairman), Denise Kontras (President), Anita Evans (Treasurer), Debbie House (Vice-President), Diana Borden (Secretary), and Mrs. Sherer (Advisor), secure the pinata for their Christmas party.

Surrounding a miniature Eiffel Tower are French Club officers, Judy Winters (Refreshment Chairman), Chris Copeland (President), Craig Anderson (Treasurer), Ellen Isaly (Secretary), Dave Smith (Program Chairman), and Mrs. Miller (Advisor). Marnee Swope (Vice-President) is missing from the picture.

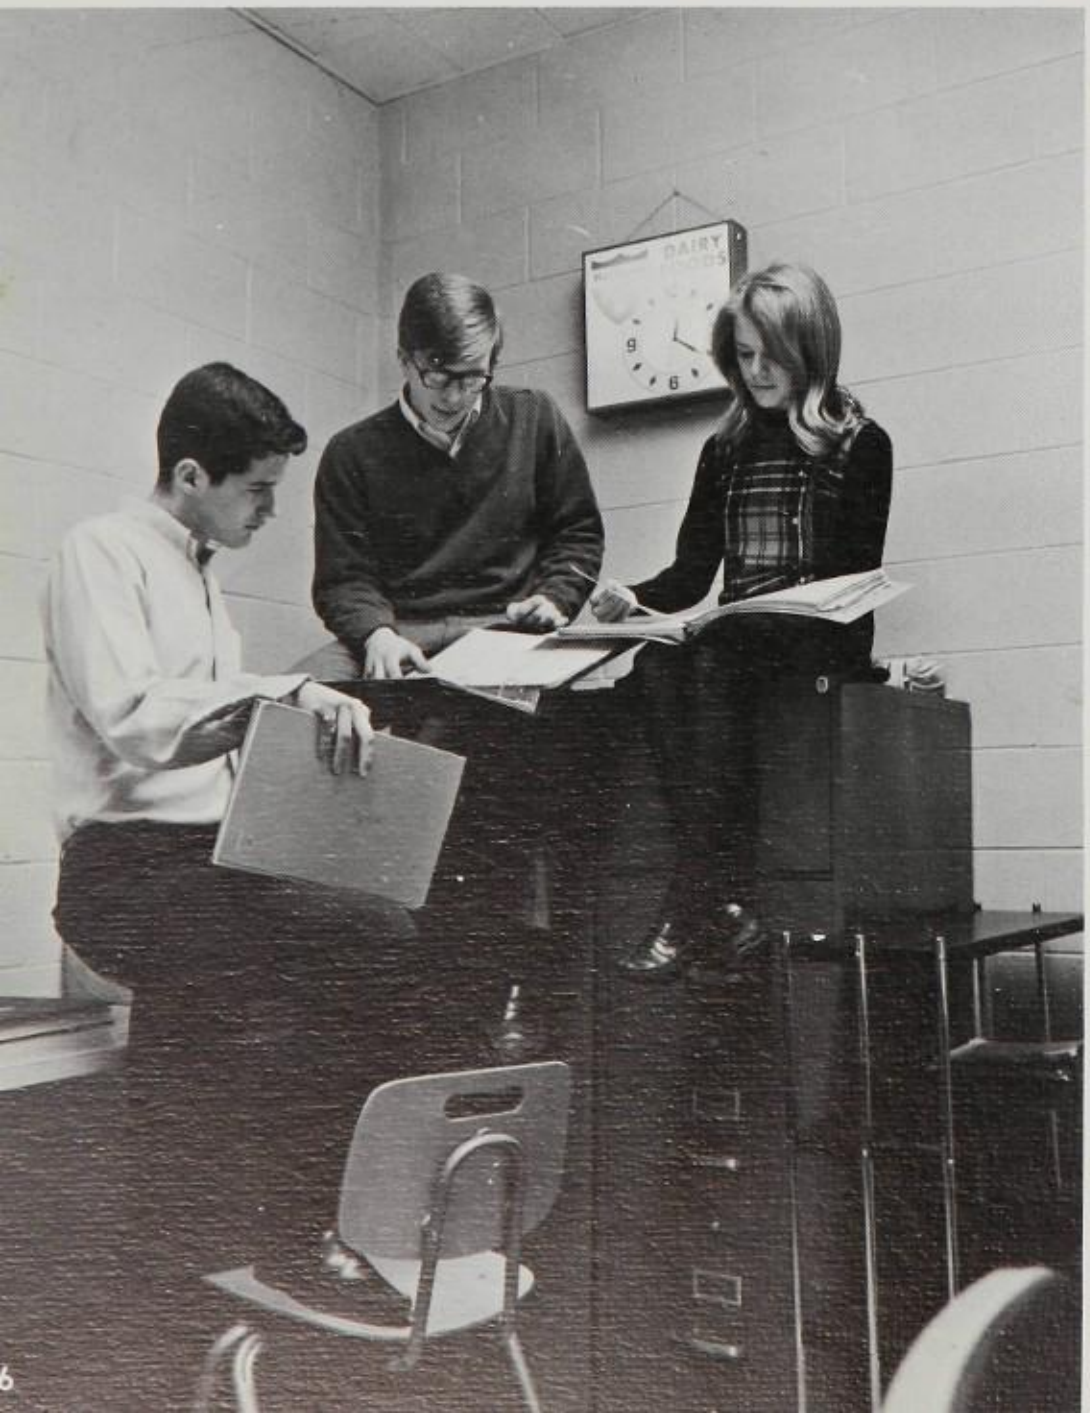
The four language clubs, which are open to anyone, acquaint UA students with the inhabitants and customs of foreign countries. The activities are designed so that the students may actively participate in the different programs.

Two teachers from Moscow spoke to Russian Club members about their school system. Also, a Russian banquet was held. A Mardi Gras festival and various skits were put on by the French Club. Latin Club participated in a convention relating to Roman mythology and costumes. The Roman banquet was the highlight of the year for that club. Spanish Club held a pinata party during the Christmas season.

Appreciation for their own society and a respect for those of other countries were the results of active participation in these language clubs.

Latin Club officers, Mindy Rowe (President), and Carole DiPietro (Secretary), examine a model of the Colosseum, while Mrs. Malloy (Advisor), Larry Harmon (Treasurer), and Bill Snouffer (Vice-President) inscribe Latin on a Roman tablet.

Studying yearbook design are Miss Haupt (Advisor), Jan Runyan (Editor-in-chief), and Mrs. Malloy (Advisor).



Taking photographs, making layouts, cropping pictures, and writing copy—all were tedious chores which faced the 1967-1968 Norwester staff. Not until the first deadline arrived, did they actually realize the huge responsibility with which they were confronted.

To prepare for the job, the staff members attended various journalism workshops during the summer and studied yearbooks from other schools. They also listened to the advice of last year's staff as well as to that of the advisors. With little experience but plenty of enthusiasm the Norwester staff prepared to begin.

After several weeks, the staff soon realized the importance of helping each other and functioning as a team. While some had met their deadlines, they were always willing to help the others complete their section. Only this kind of teamwork could lead to the successful completion of the yearbook.

After much planning and proofreading, the words and pictures were laid down for the press. The Norwester staff most sincerely hopes that they have succeeded in capturing the life and mood at UA 67-68.

Randy Brown (Assistant Editor), Dick Winters (Class Editor), and Ann Rennie (Assistant Editor) review various layouts.

Bob Becker (Business Manager) balances the account, while Marnee Swope (Literary Editor) tells Typist Nancy Badley and Typist Jim Sterner how she wishes her copy to be written.

Geoff Case (Managing Editor), Craig Nohl and Bruce Morgan (Editors-in-chief), and Andy Snow (Managing Editor) admire the finished product.

Krissy Lindley (Feature Editor), Cindy Martin (News Feature Editor), Rick Drake (Sports Editor), and Joanie Thomas (News Editor) type the copy for their sections.

The financial and advertising operations are performed by Karen Meeder (Circulation Manager), Marcia Armstrong (Assistant Circulation Manager), Debbie Roberts (Assistant Advertising Manager), Jim Kight (Advertising Manager), Sherry Soronen (Business Manager), and Kathy Hall (Director of Finance).

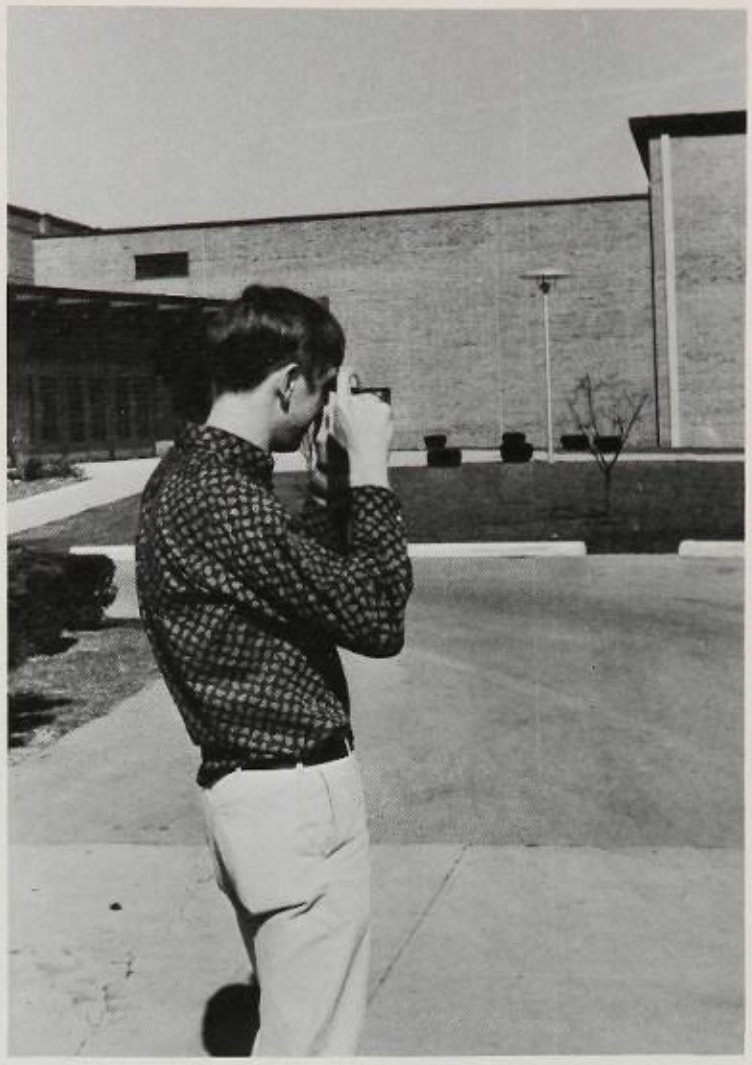
The nineteen-member Arlingtonian staff, under the direction of Mrs. Ricketts, presented the latest news around the high school in their bi-weekly publication. Social events, club activities, sports highlights, and student opinions were expressed.

Coming up with new and different ideas required quite an imaginative staff. This imagination was reflected through clever photography, interesting subject matter, and special issues. After arriving at some idea, the staff members attacked the routine jobs of taking and cropping pictures, writing copy, laying out columns, and selling advertisements.

The Arlingtonian staff carried on the traditional Turkey King contest, where the most popular male teacher and the most popular male student from each grade were elected. They also published the Senior wills in their final issue. Aside from the normal activities, the staff sponsored a fall open house and co-sponsored a bake sale with Quill and Scroll.

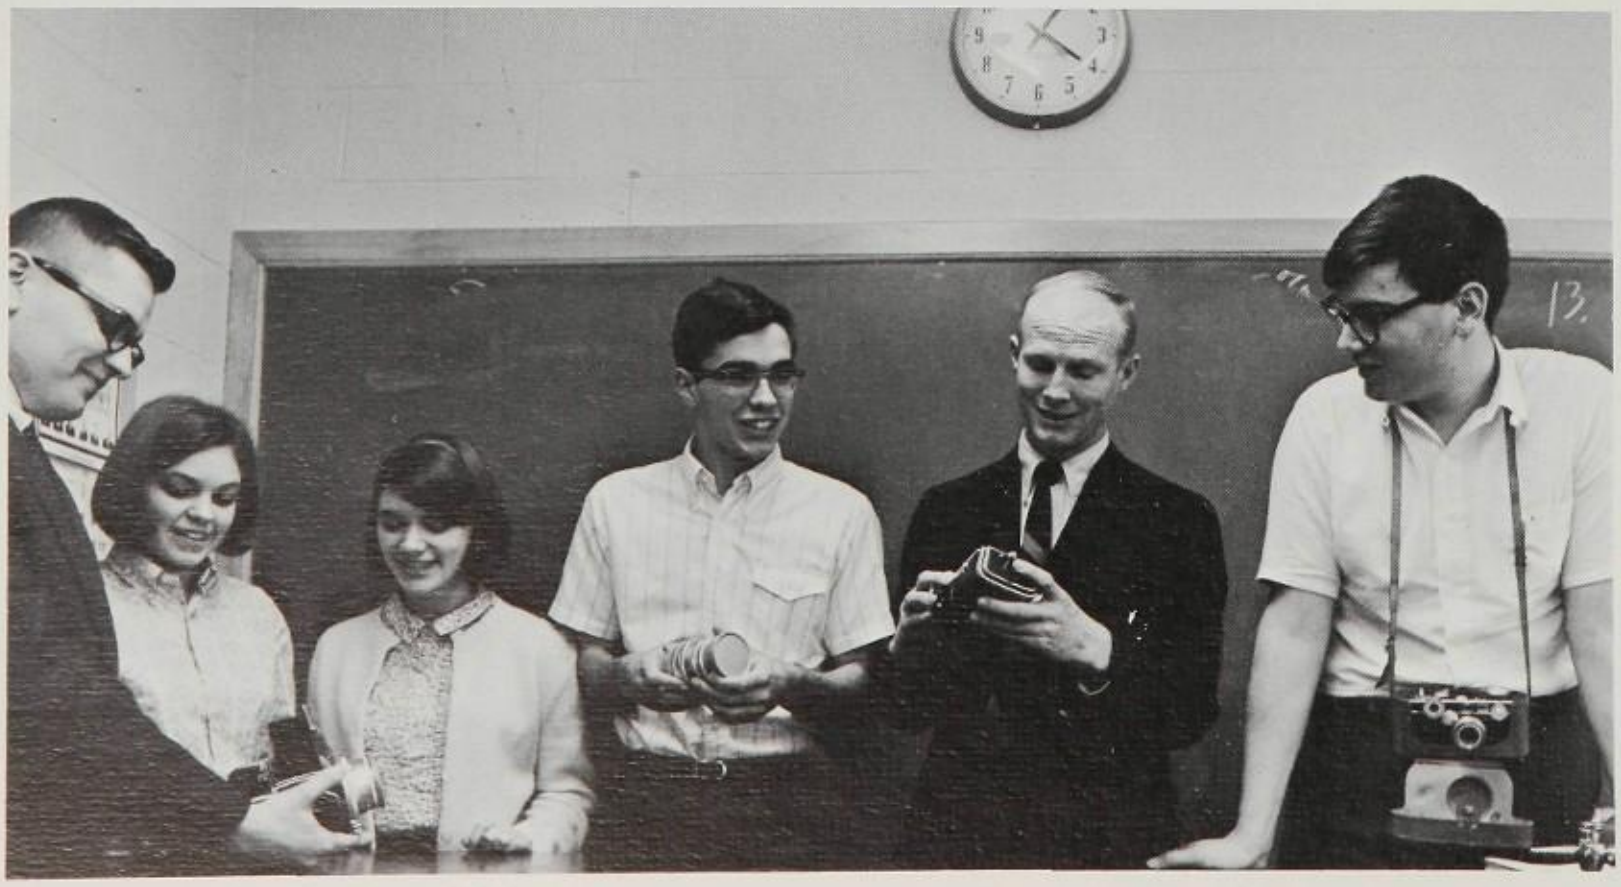
Voicing opinions and relating the latest news occupy the time of the staff writers: Maggie Spero, Dan Warfield, Dick Bowers, Ellie Greegor, and Kathy Foreman.

Math Club officers, Mark Havener (Secretary), Mr. Sahl (Advisor), Randy Brown (President), Mr. Crawford (Advisor), and Craig Nohl (Treasurer), prepare to teach the use of the slide rule to math students. Dave Smith (Vice-President) is missing from the picture.



Bruce Booher focuses his camera on some object on the school grounds.

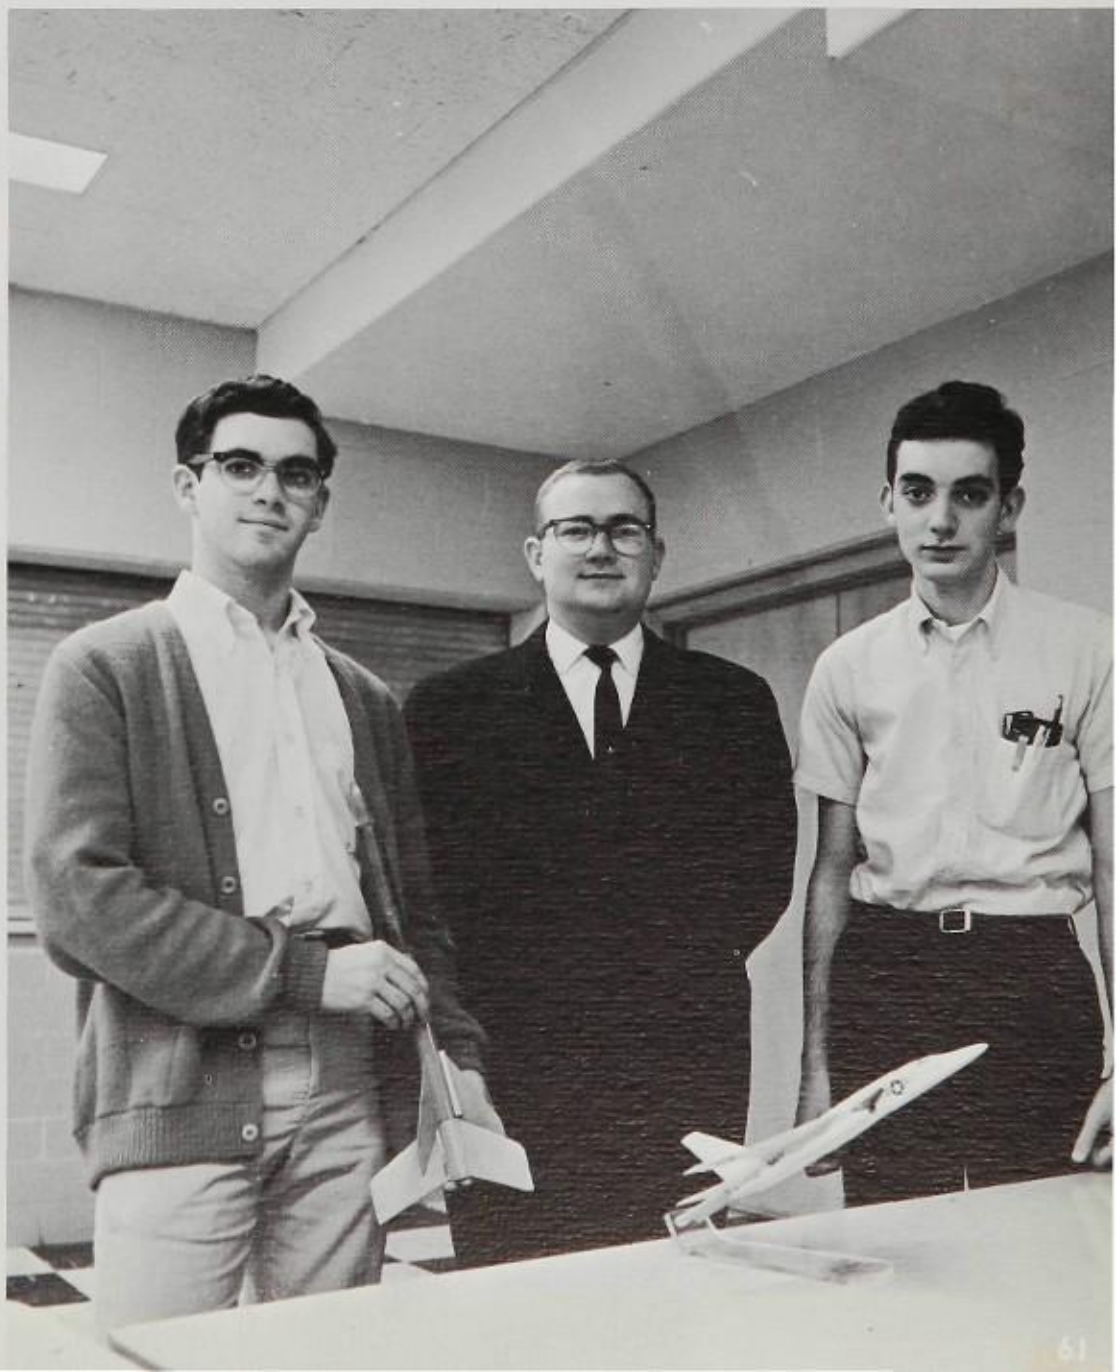
Many UA clubs are designed to provide students with an opportunity to explore certain fields of applied science. Radio Club taught beginners code and radio theory. The school station in the physics lab was constantly in use after and during school. Math Club and Rocket Club were newly formed to meet the increasing interest in those fields. Camera Club held various photography contests which spurred a great deal of interest among the student body. All four clubs encouraged independent pursuit in their respective fields.



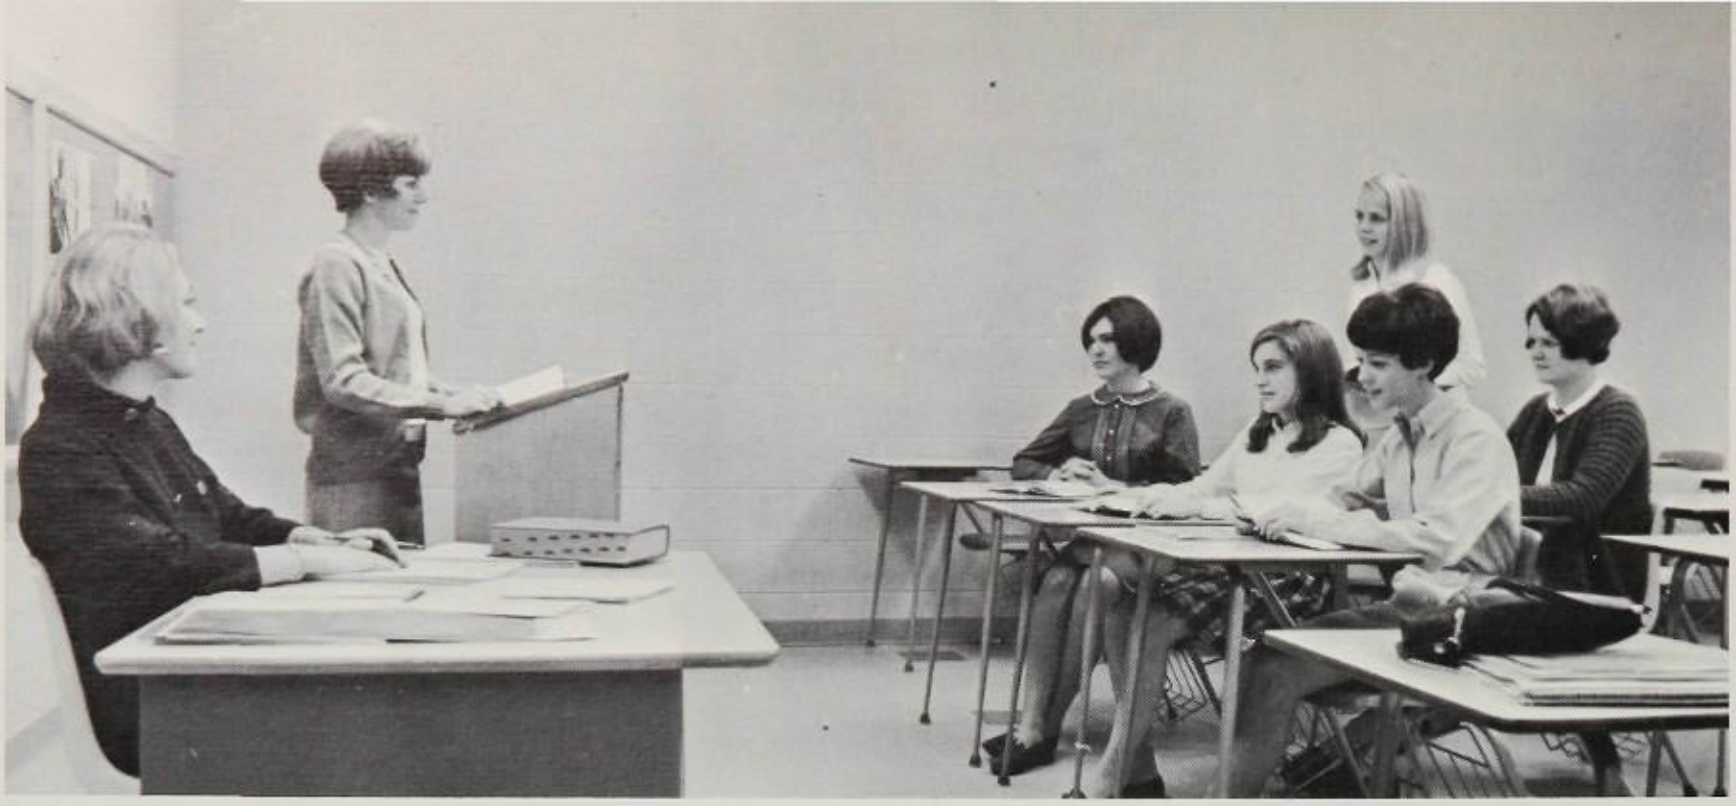
Mr. Hoffmaster (Advisor), Debbie Kilgore (Treasurer), Ann Rose (Secretary), Roger Nohl (President), Mr. O'Connor (Advisor), and Dan Rose (Vice-President) inspect the equipment of a professional photographer during a Camera Club meeting.

Radio Club officers, Craig Nohl (President), Harry Mamas (Vice-President), Brent Reider (Secretary), and Mr. Bowman (Advisor), utilize the radio equipment in the physics lab. Missing from the picture is Paul Dickson (Treasurer).

Bruce Booher and Bob Becker spend much of their after-school hours experimenting with electricity.



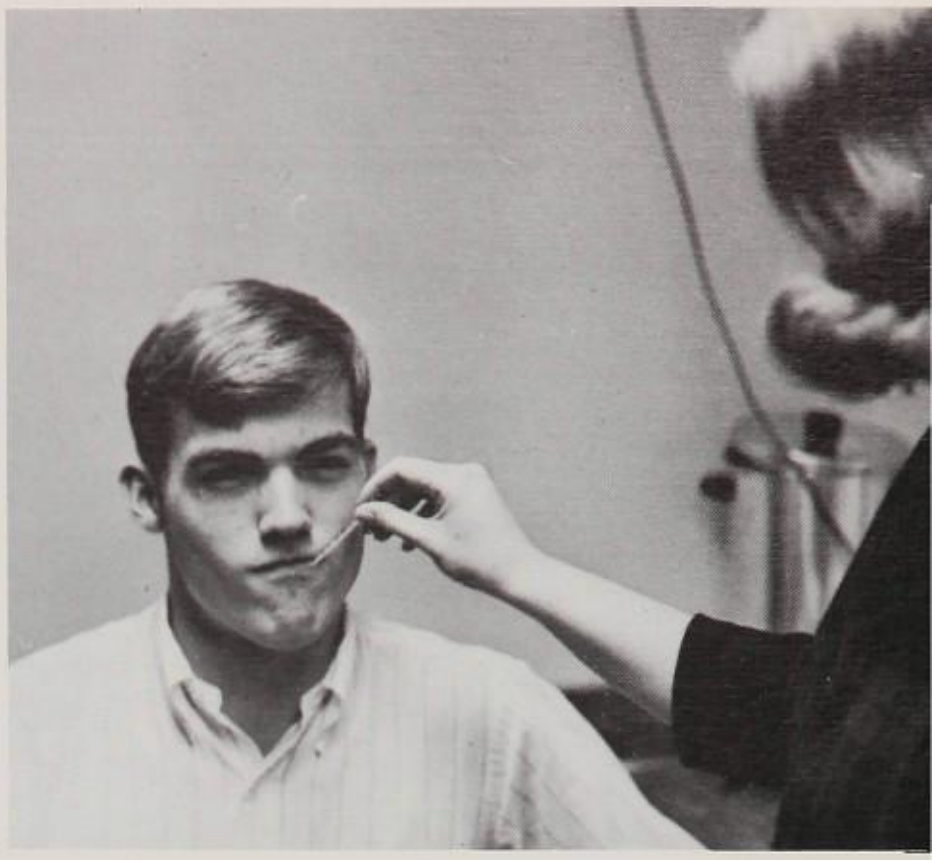
Rocket Club officers, Mark Stull (President), Mr. Ruoff (Advisor), and Jeff Sutro (Secretary-Treasurer), study the latest advancements in aviation and space technology.



Future Teachers' Association officers learning how to conduct a class under the advice of Mrs. Bullock (Advisor) are Sue Brown (President), Marti Johnson (Vice-President), Maggie Spero (Program Chairman), Ellen Magnuson (Secretary), Ginger McKay (Treasurer), and Sharon Gilmore (Leaders' Club Representative).

Distributive Ed. Club officers, Tarie Marshall (Secretary), Mike Henry (Historian), Steve Sharp (Treasurer), Greg Hansen (Vice-President), and Mike Walcutt (President), discuss and practice various sales and merchandising techniques under the observation of Mr. Streittlemyer (Advisor).

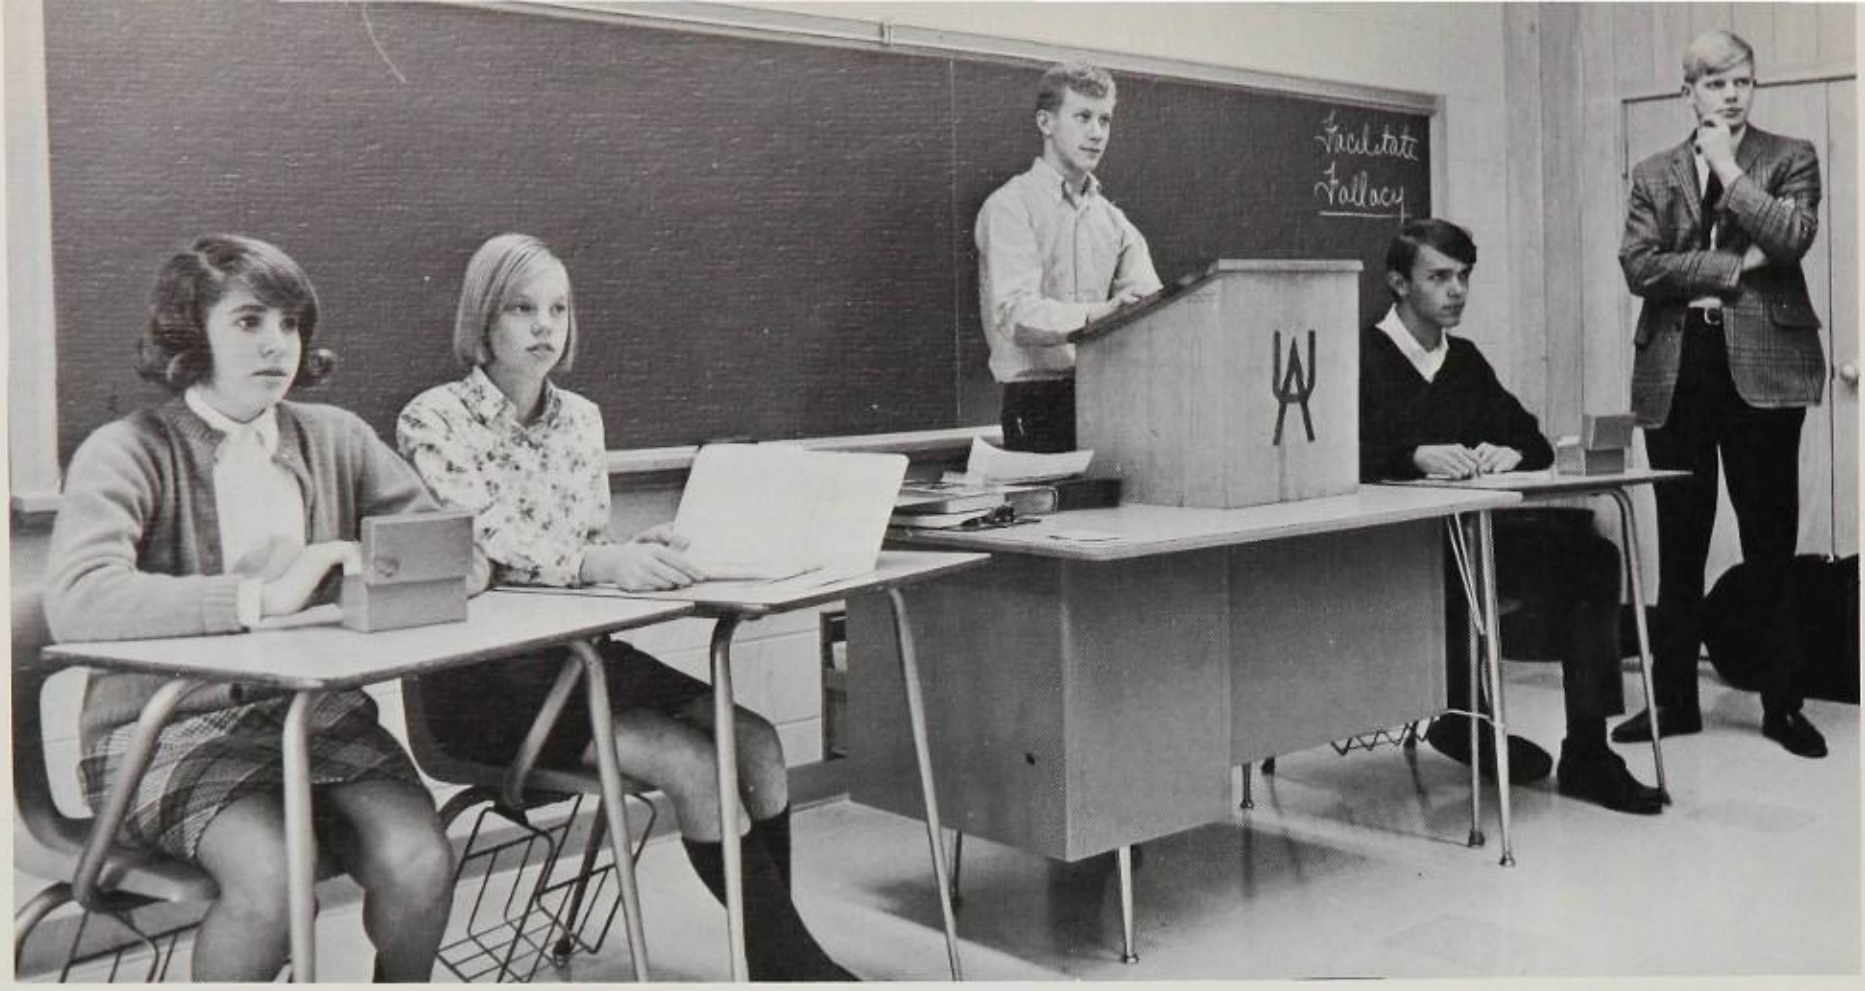
Business Club officers, Sherry Soronen (Secretary), Linda Willoughby (Treasurer), Tammy Howard (Vice-President), Mrs. Ferdi (Advisor), Jody Dean (President), Marsha Conrad (Leaders' Club Representative), and Miss Glick (Advisor), discuss ways to improve secretarial efficiency.



Checking blood pressure and taking temperature are two of the many duties performed by Mrs. Tight, the school nurse.

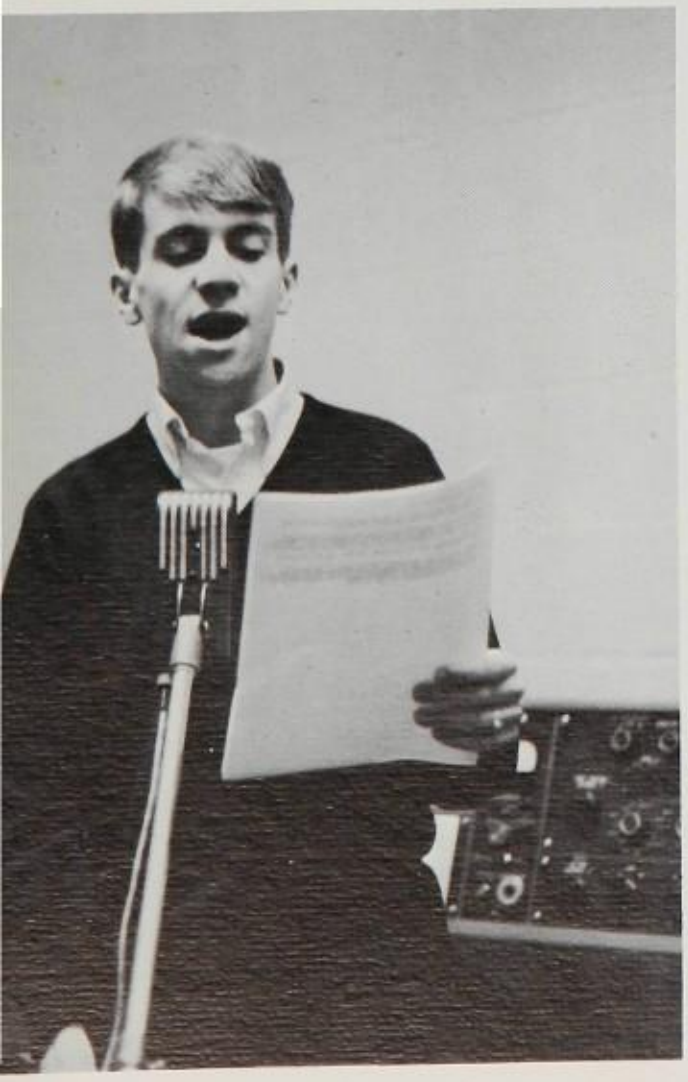
Students learned about the opportunities of certain professions through membership in career clubs. Business Club members listened to various speakers discuss business opportunities and careers. Future Nurses' Club visited the Red Cross Blood Center and listened to various speakers. The Future Teachers' Association members received first-hand experience through the cadet teaching program. The Distributive Education Club at UA entered district competition concerning job interviews, sales promotion, demonstration, and display. Through membership in these clubs, students planned for the future.

Kathy Von Holten (President), Lynda Bernays (Treasurer), Sylvia Brosend (Secretary), and Maggie Arnold (Vice-President) practice certain basic procedures under the watchful eyes of Mrs. Tight (Advisor) during a meeting of the Future Nurses' Club.



Sandy Hausman, Lynn Halverson, Matt Bacon, and John Wheatly practice as a debate team under the coaching of Mr. Canfield (Advisor).

Drama and debate provide the students with an opportunity to express themselves as well as to develop their speech skills. Drama Club's major activity was their production of Inherit the Wind, a play dealing with the teaching of evolution in a public school. They have also prepared skits for their various meetings. The debate teams have successfully traveled around central Ohio in debate competition. Both drama and debate programs in the school have attracted a great deal of interest among the students.

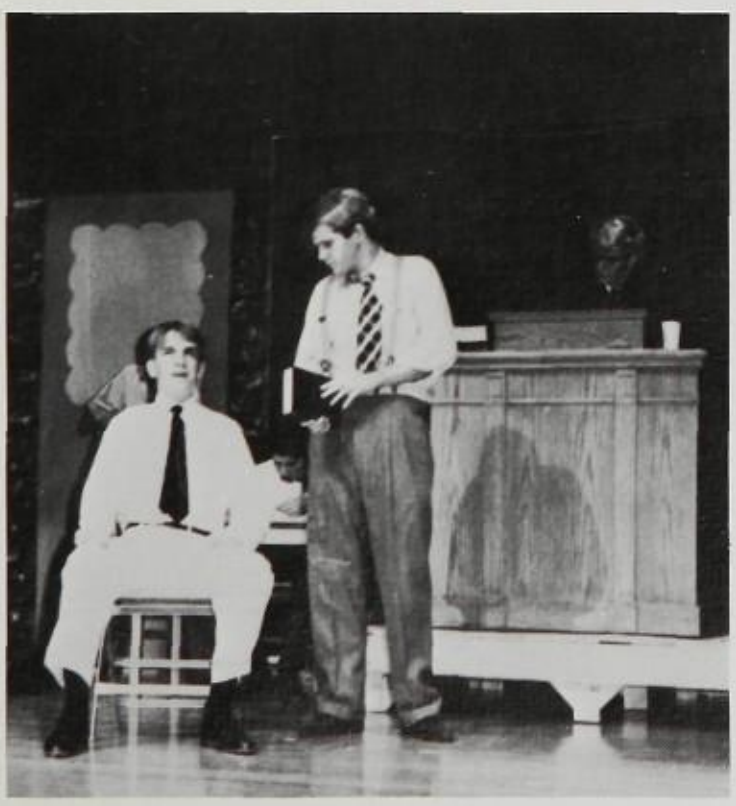


Geoff Case serves on the morning announcement crew.

Gary Sheriff looks in the mirror to check his makeup before the performance of Inherit the Wind.

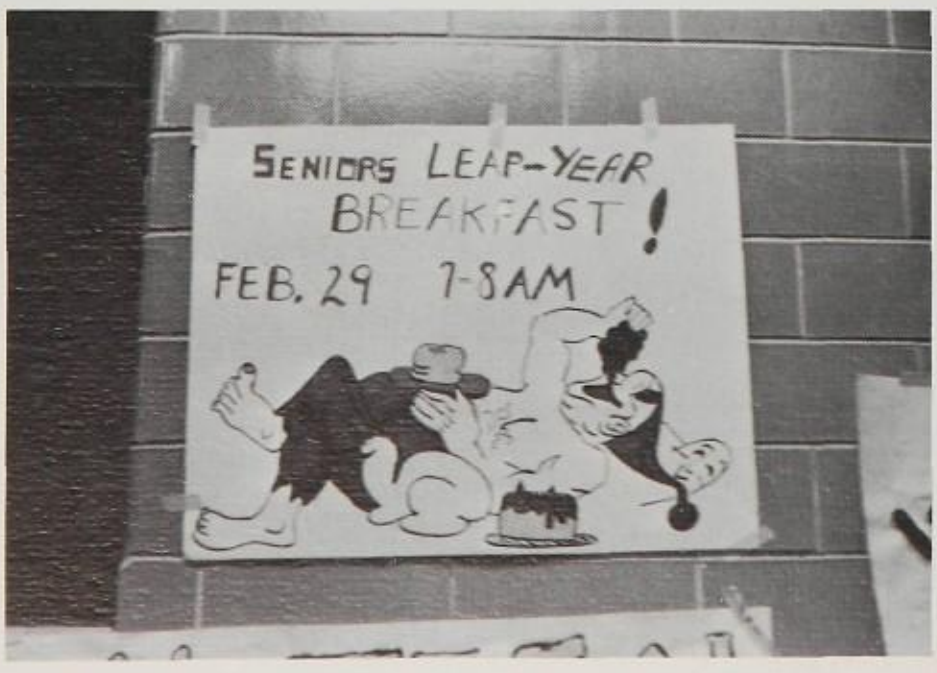
Drama Club officers, Richard Hollingsworth (Vice-President), Geoff Case (President), and Lynn Johnston (Secretary-Treasurer) rehearse under the direction of Mr. Sammons (Advisor).

Preparing stage scenery occupies much time and effort of the stage crew.



Geoff Case, as Mathew Harrison Brady, and Richard Hollingsworth, as Henry Drummond, heatedly discuss the theories of evolution in the play Inherit the Wind.

Preparing posters and signs occupies the time of Pub Club officers, Dorothy Mitchell (Vice-President), Bonnie Schoenborn (Treasurer), Leslie Mayer (Leaders' Club Representative), LuAnne Steinfurth (President), and Mrs. Myers (Advisor). Sarah Robinson (Secretary) is missing from the picture.



Cleverly designed posters inform the student body of upcoming events.

Posters and decorations which added to the mood of the season or to the excitement of upcoming events were made during after-school hours by members of Festo and Pub Clubs. Pub Club concentrated on the events and successes of UA's athletic squads, while Festo Club provided artistic decorations with emphasis on the holiday spirit. Both clubs allowed the students to further their artistic talents, while contributing to the life at UA.

Pub Club members participate in their poster contest.

Student models pose for art students to provide a more realistic atmosphere.

Mr. Shelby (Advisor), Jim Sterner (Vice-President), Jim Carpenter (Secretary), Chuck Snyder (President), and Chet Hanson (Treasurer) are the 67-68 Hi-Y officers.

Planning to tutor at the Godman Guild are Help Club officers, Suzi Kauffman (Vice-President), Ann Springer (Publicity Chairman), Lyn Skillman (Transportation Chairman), Mrs. Nardy (Advisor), Ginger Richards (President), and Becky Long (Secretary-Treasurer).

The Leaders' Club basketball team poses after an unsuccessful scrimmage with the Columbus State School squad.

Many clubs of the high school are designed to serve or give assistance to the underprivileged people of the community. Help Club held a clothing drive, went Kinder Key caroling, and did volunteer work. Y-Teens members went Kinder Key caroling, adopted an orphan, and made Christmas favors for a children's home. Hi-Y participated in local sports programs and did volunteer community work. Leaders' Club held its annual canned foods drive in the area. It also made several trips to the Columbus State School and held a Christmas party and a Valentine party for the children at Gladden Community House.

Aside from benefiting the community, members of these clubs acquire a better understanding of today's problems.

Y-Teens officers, Mrs. Ittner (Advisor), Mrs. Howells (Advisor), Carol Cameron (Treasurer), Sarah Robinson (Secretary), and Karen Meeder (President), clean up after their Computer-Ca·i Dance. Judy Brewer (Vice-President) is missing from the pictura.

Mrs. Wilson (Advisor), Jeff Burtch (President), Ken Ross (Treasurer), Beth McCartney (Vice-President), and Jody Patten (Secretary) sort the cans after the Leaders' Club canned foods drive.

Judy Winters, Jean Evans, Debbie Phillips, Jud McIntire, Peggy O'Neill, George Richards, and Chick Stephenson head the Leaders' Club committees.

Ellen Rogers (Treasurer), Mrs. Bobb (Advisor), Gwen Patterson (Secretary), Ann Gardes (Vice-President), Janice Nielsen (President), and Miss James (Advisor) prepare designs and outfits for the style show sponsored by Charm Club.

Bev Hill (Treasurer), Mary McKitrick (Vice-President), Mrs. Hoyer (Advisor), Pam Parker (Secretary), Mrs. Potter (Advisor), and Pat Dudley (President) are the officers as ASK, the senior girls' club.

ASK, CRI, TUF, and Charm Club are clubs designed solely for the girls' interests. Charm Club's style show and ASK's hairstyling show appealed to girls interested in the latest fashion. Both ASK and CRI held parties and spreads, and together they co-sponsored the Christmas Formal. Charm Club held their annual girl-ask-boy Golddiggers' Dance as well as a hayride in the fall. TUF, the spohomore girls' club, was concerned primarily with organizing itself. These clubs helped get the girls into the swing of life at UA.

Kathy Irwin (Secretary), Barb Arnold (Vice-President), Mrs. Wallace (Advisor), Kathy Wigglesworth (President), Mrs. Moore (Advisor), and Debbie Kilgore (Treasurer) face the task of organizing the new sophomore girls' club TUF.

Varsity senior cheerleaders are Ann Rennie (alternate), Jody Speer, Sue Dones, and Patty Zartman.

Varsity junior cheerleaders are Lindy Gardner, Sally Whipple, Bev D'Angelo (alternate), and Nancy Kiefer.

The tremendous school spirit which was ever-present at all the athletic events reflected the pride that the students felt for their players and their school. The cheerleaders kept this spirit alive with cries such as "Go Bears," "Hold that line," and "We're No. 1." This cheering told the players that their friends were behind them urging them to fight harder.

Pep Club officers, Alice McKitrick (Treasurer), Nancy Sinclair (Secretary), Syd Lehner (Vice-President), Sheelah Moriarty (President), and Mrs. Fulton (Advisor), form a new club designed to raise school spirit at athletic events.

Signs made by the UA Timers encourage the mermen to strive harder.

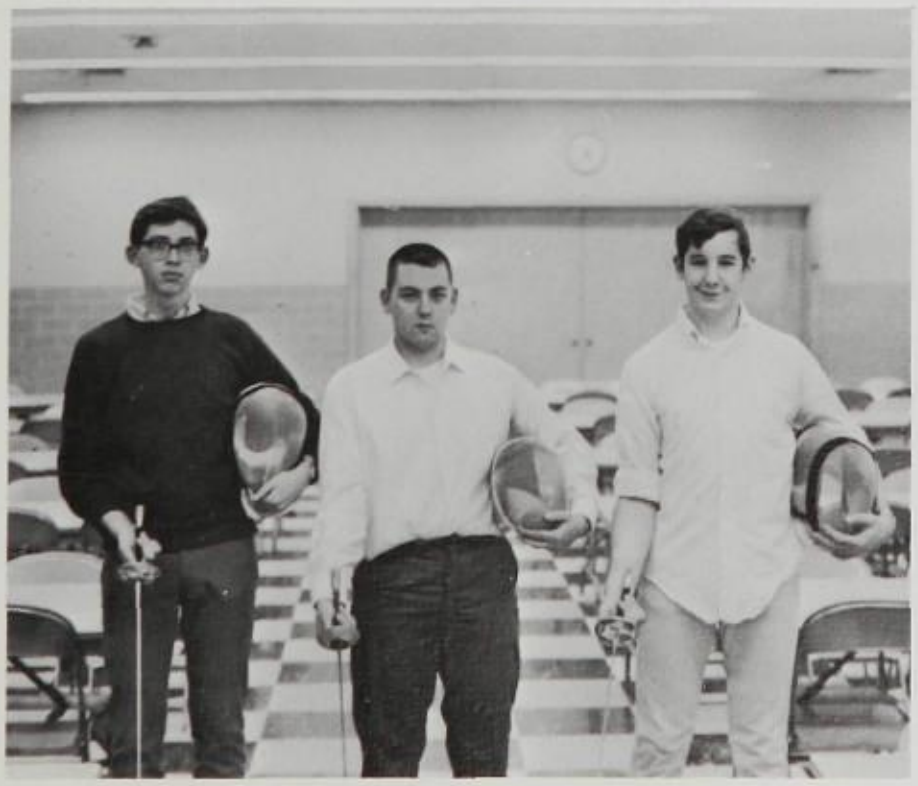
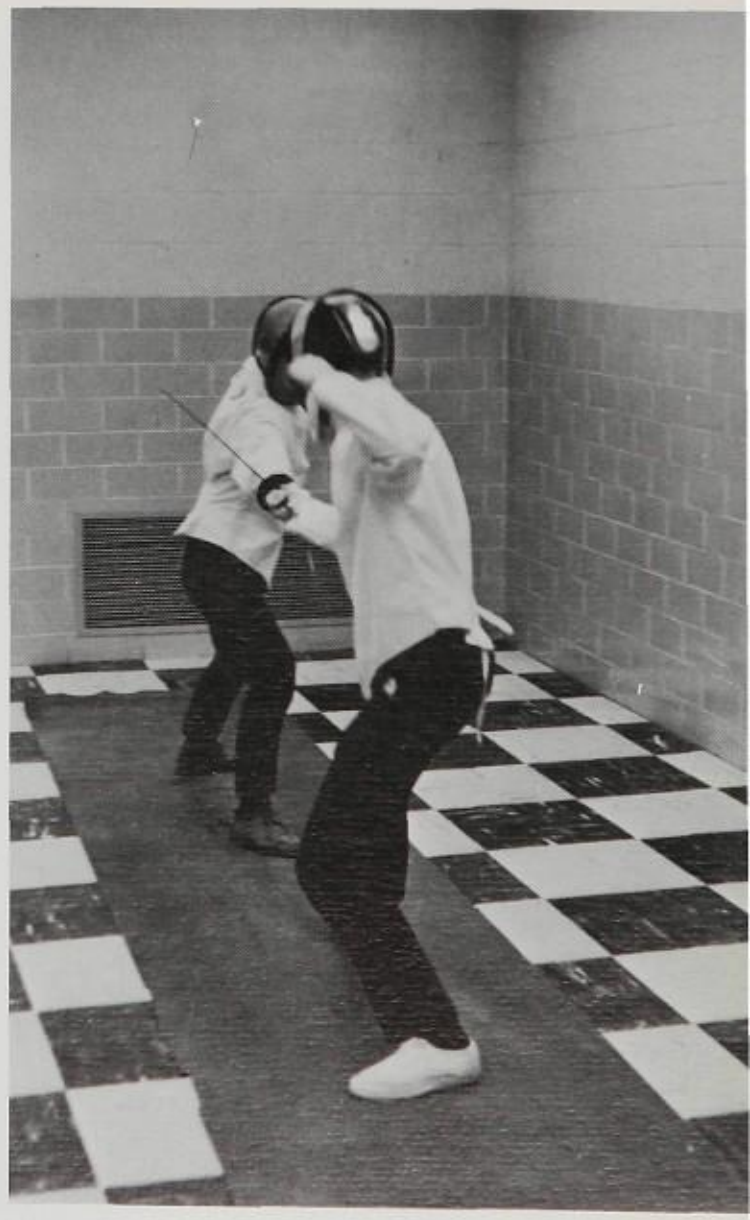
The Upper Arlington Guard furnished guards for the natatorium throughout the year. They also instructed a swimming class for youngsters every Saturday morning. The UA Timers' Association helped the swimming coach by timing at all the home swim meets.

Ski Club and Fencing Club encouraged active participation in their respective sports. Ski Club sponsored several ski trips, while Fencing Club taught its members the fundamentals, hoping that it would be able to compete with other teams in the area.



Richard Googins (President), Mr. Corbett (Advisor), and Bill Moore (Secretary-Treasurer) plan for a stronger Fencing Club.



Fencing Club practices are held several times each week in the cafeteria.

American Field Service officers, Mr. Will (Advisor), Jean Evans (Leaders' Club Representative), Tom Doerk (Vice-President), Carla Eyre (Treasurer), Sally Swope (President), and Mrs. Benbow (Advisor), help make it possible for Mitsuo Tashiro from Japan and Maria Poblete from Chile to spend the year studying in the United States.

The American Field Service provided students with the opportunity to visit and study abroad. Through this program, one not only learned the customs of the country, but also gained a better understanding of the people and their problems.

Foreign Policy Seminar was created by a group of students interested in discussing American relations with foreign countries. By purchasing various articles on the subject, they were able to study the problems in depth.

Young Americans for Freedom encouraged the promotion of political education. Although not a partisan club, it urged the members to take an active role in campaigns and elections.

Young Americans for Freedom officers, Mr. Cavins (Advisor), Mark Havener (Vice-President), Bruce Booher President), Mark Stull (Secretary), and Dave Wilhoite (Treasurer) keep informed on the world scene.

Members of the Foreign Policy Seminar meet and discuss various influences and results that form our foreign policy.

The Upper Arlington Senior Concert Choir composed of 216 members was kept busy providing entertainment for the high school throughout the year. The more important performances were the Fall Festival of Song, the Christmas Assembly, the Messiah, and the 17th Annual Spring Choral Festival. During the spring, the members put on the musical production of the Sound of Music.

Whether the season was serious or gay and festive, the choir always provided the outstanding performances for which it is recognized and respected.

Mr. Moorehead discusses a technical fine point with the referee.

The 1967 Upper Arlington football squad proved to be the most outstanding team in school history. Under the skillful direction of Ohio's High School Coach of the Year, Marvin Moorehead, the Arlington gridders posted a perfect 10-0 record on their way to the Class AA State Championship. Keen desire coupled with uncanny teamwork proved to be the determining factor of this exceptional squad.

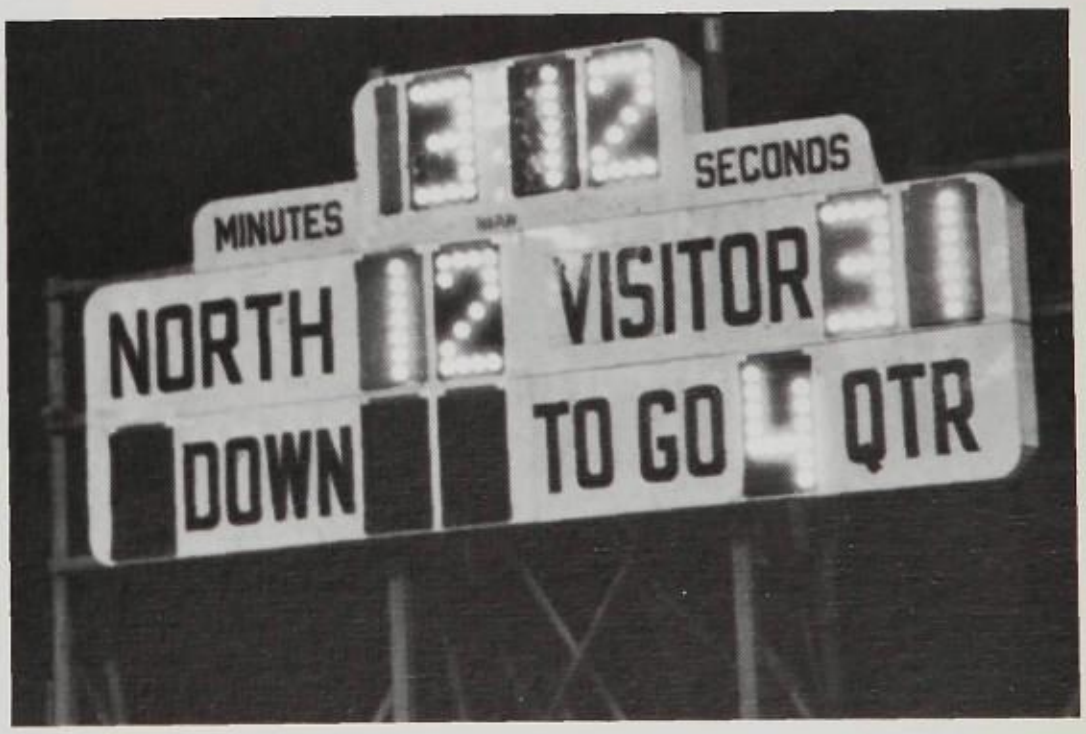
Undefeated State Champions

Directed by the accurate arm of Scott Stanley, the bruin attack exploded with a 46-22 victory over Lancaster in the season opener. Geoff Schmidt, Dave Gordon, and Gary Moore each scored twice while Ted McNulty with a 60 yard pass interception and Scott Huston with 4 extra points rounded out the scoring.

Columbus South became a 45-6 victim as the Bears rolled in their second win. Setting standards for the rest of the season, the determined Bear defense allowed the Bulldogs only 5 first downs.

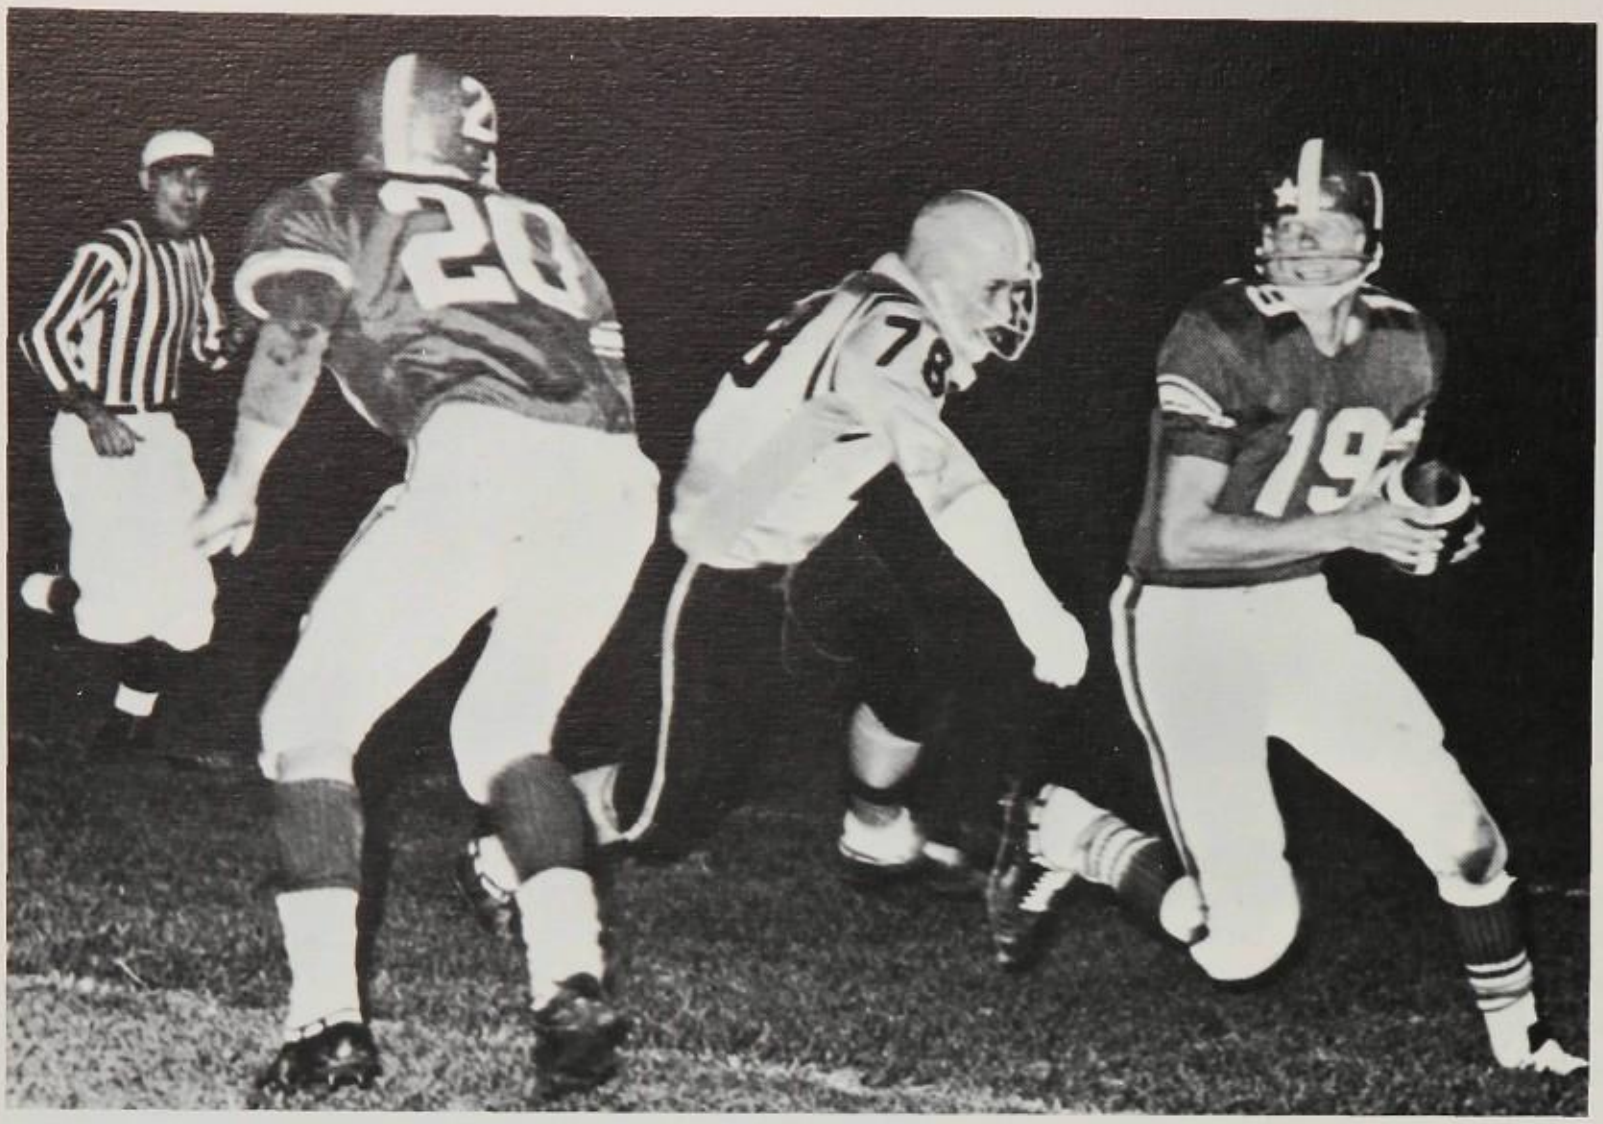
The two home openers against Springfield South and Newark turned into Arlington romps as the Golden Bear offense capitalized on interceptions and fumbles forced by bruising defensive play. Halfback Moore led the attack with sparkling 40 and 70 yard gains.

Coach Moorehead captured his 90th victory at UA as his gridders celebrated homecoming by stomping Mt. Vernon 54-7. Stanley paced the Bears with his air attack, completing 8 of 10 attempts, while Moore led all scoring with 3 touchdowns.



How sweet it is!

The following week found the gridders at home on a rain soaked field facing Ready. UA scorers stormed past the Silver Knights 37-6 racking up a total offense of more than 400 yards for the sixth consecutive game.



All-American tackle Steve Sikora prepares to dump a Newark back for a long loss.

Golden Bears Reign at North and Massillon

Homecoming at Tigertown was dampened by Scott Huston's extra point following Geoff Schmidt's touchdown late in the fourth quarter, edging the Golden Bears to a 7-6 win over powerful Massillon. Ohio High School Lineman of the Year, Steve Sikora, led the inspired Bruin defensive unit which prevented the Tigers from entering UA territory during the second half and which yielded only 8 first downs the entire evening.

Unfortunately for their foes, the Golden Bear powerhouse continued to improve. An all time school scoring record was set at Worthington by an amazing 76-0 UA win. Cambridge, too, felt the down stroke of the ax as the gridders unleashed a 41-0 victory in the rain.

The most satisfying victory of the year came on November 10, as the Golden Bears of Upper Arlington closed their season with an exciting win over Watterson. Trailing by 12 points, the Golden Bears returned in the second half to combine what may have been their greatest offensive and defensive efforts of the year to defeat the Eagles 31-12.

Scott Huston adds an extra point at Lancaster as Ted McNulty holds.

Reserves Are 8-2

Arlington's Little Bruins posted an excellent 8-2 record losing only to tough DeSales and Watterson teams. A controversial call back of a Golden Bear touchdown enabled a moral victory over DeSales for the Reserves even though the game went into the score book as a loss.

Coach Fryman felt that his team was exceptionally well rounded and looked forward to many great things yet to come next year.

Rick Drake goes all out at Regional finish.

The 1968 Golden Bear Cross Country team recorded the most outstanding season in U. A. harrier history. Coach Crosten's boys racked up not only the best state showing ever but also the District and Regional crowns as well as the C.O.L. title.

Highlighting the year was the Bruin placement of three individuals in the top ten at the state meet. Co-captain Phil Sparling finished sixth, followed by Junior George Metzger in eighth and Bob Becker at the number ten position.

Dave Russell and Denny Dicke scrap for a rebound against Fairfield Union.

In his third year at Arlington Mr. McDonald coached his team to a successful 11-7 season. Highlighting the Basketeers' year was the capturing of the Christmas Tournament title in which the Golden Bears nipped foes Watterson and North to brighten the holiday season at U.A. courtside.

The Bruins' play this year was distinguished by its fierce defense led by senior tri-captain Steve Hopkins. While limiting their opponents to a minimum of points, workhorse Larry Sauer provided offensive flair against such state powers as Newark and Zanesville. The real offensive sparkle came, however, from secret weapon Don Baumer whose shots rained through the basket from all over the court.

Officers guide G.A.A. activities

G.A.A.'s activities this year provided many girls with the opportunity to participate in a wide range of sports. The officers initiated their program early in the fall and worked diligently to involve all the members in either varsity or intramural games. The turn-out for the teams was encouraging and the girls were enthusiastic. Saturday morning recreation and co-ed volleyball games were also well supported.

The idea of fun and enjoyment for the entire student body prompted the G.A.A. sponsored Lively Guys Basketball Game in February as well as the Bermuda Ball in March. High points of the year were recounted in May at the annual Banquet.

BE INTERESTED IN THE FUTURE;
YOU'LL SPEND THE REST OF YOUR LIFE THERE.

When you finish your education and are on your own, you will begin to think more about saving a little money for a rainy day.

An 18 year old who decides to save 65c a day will have saved $11,134 by the time he reaches retirement. If he saves it with us, he will receive a check for $21,880.00, a profit of $10,746.00. If he would prefer not to take a lump sum, he will receive a minimum of $137.00 a month for the rest of his life. In 20 years that would total $32,880.00.

Give us a call so we can get together with you and your parents to look at your future together.

Could you love it more with air conditioning?

Cold logic says probably.

An air conditioner in your Volkswagen saves on wilted collars and crumpled suits, to say nothing of frazzled nerves. (Even though your air-cooled engine can't boil over at 100°, you can. Without air conditioning.)

The unit was specially designed for VW to fit under the dash. Out of the way. And the controls are as close to hand as your car radio.

If you drive a beetle, Karmann Ghia, Fastback, or Squareback sedan, we have a VW air conditioner to cool it. We can't guarantee it'll make your Volkswagen more lovable. But liveable? Yes.

The year in mind is now a sometime memory . . .

a kaleidoscope of sounds, people and feelings intensified or blurred in direct proportion to the viewer's vision . . .

a time when each one of us moved as we would,

sometimes confidently in the center . . . sometimes hesitantly on the periphery.

Nonetheless, we moved . . . toward . . .?

Learning what it's all about would be so simple if we never had to think about tomorrow's deadline and next month's grades, about yesterday's words and today's feelings . . .

if we never had to know the torment of "love" and the concern for a friend, the anger of defeat and the awesomeness of responsibility.

It would be simple without the complications, but then, don't they make it worth finding out what it's all about?

The Norwester regrets that the above pictures were omitted from the senior section.

Baccalaureate and

The old lyrics go: "The party's over, it's time to call it a day," and so go our high school days. But we will live for other parties and other days, a little wiser for the time we spent here. A "here" that was just a beginning for the "there" of a useful, meaningful life. These days came easily and went quickly, but let them not mislead us. The future is earned, not given. We are prepared for the earning—let's work for it.
